

Bristol Centre
for Linguistics

Autumn Seminar Series 2022
Wednesdays, 1-2pm
On Zoom

19th October 2022

Prof Carita Paradis (Lund University, Sweden)

*Interactive alignment through resonance in face-to-face conversation:
What is it and why do we do it?*

2nd November 2022

Dr Ludivine Crible (Ghent University, Belgium)

Discourse markers, filled pauses and other disfluencies: How disfluent are they?

30th November 2022

Dr Kate Steel (UWE)

"Where's your light?": Constructing control of the setting and interactional space during police first response call-outs to domestic abuse incidents

14th December 2022

Dr Maija Surakka (Tampere University, Finland)

To what extent do children's expressions of time actually refer to time?

For further details, to sign up for a seminar (free; everyone interested is welcome!) or to be added to the mailing list for information about future events organised by the Bristol Centre for Linguistics, contact minna.kirjavainen-morgan@uwe.ac.uk (Director of BCL)