COOPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF RESEARCH SUPPORT SERVICES AT
LUND UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

GUNILLA WIKLUND, FACULTY OF LAW LIBRARY

HANNA VOOG, FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCE LIBRARY

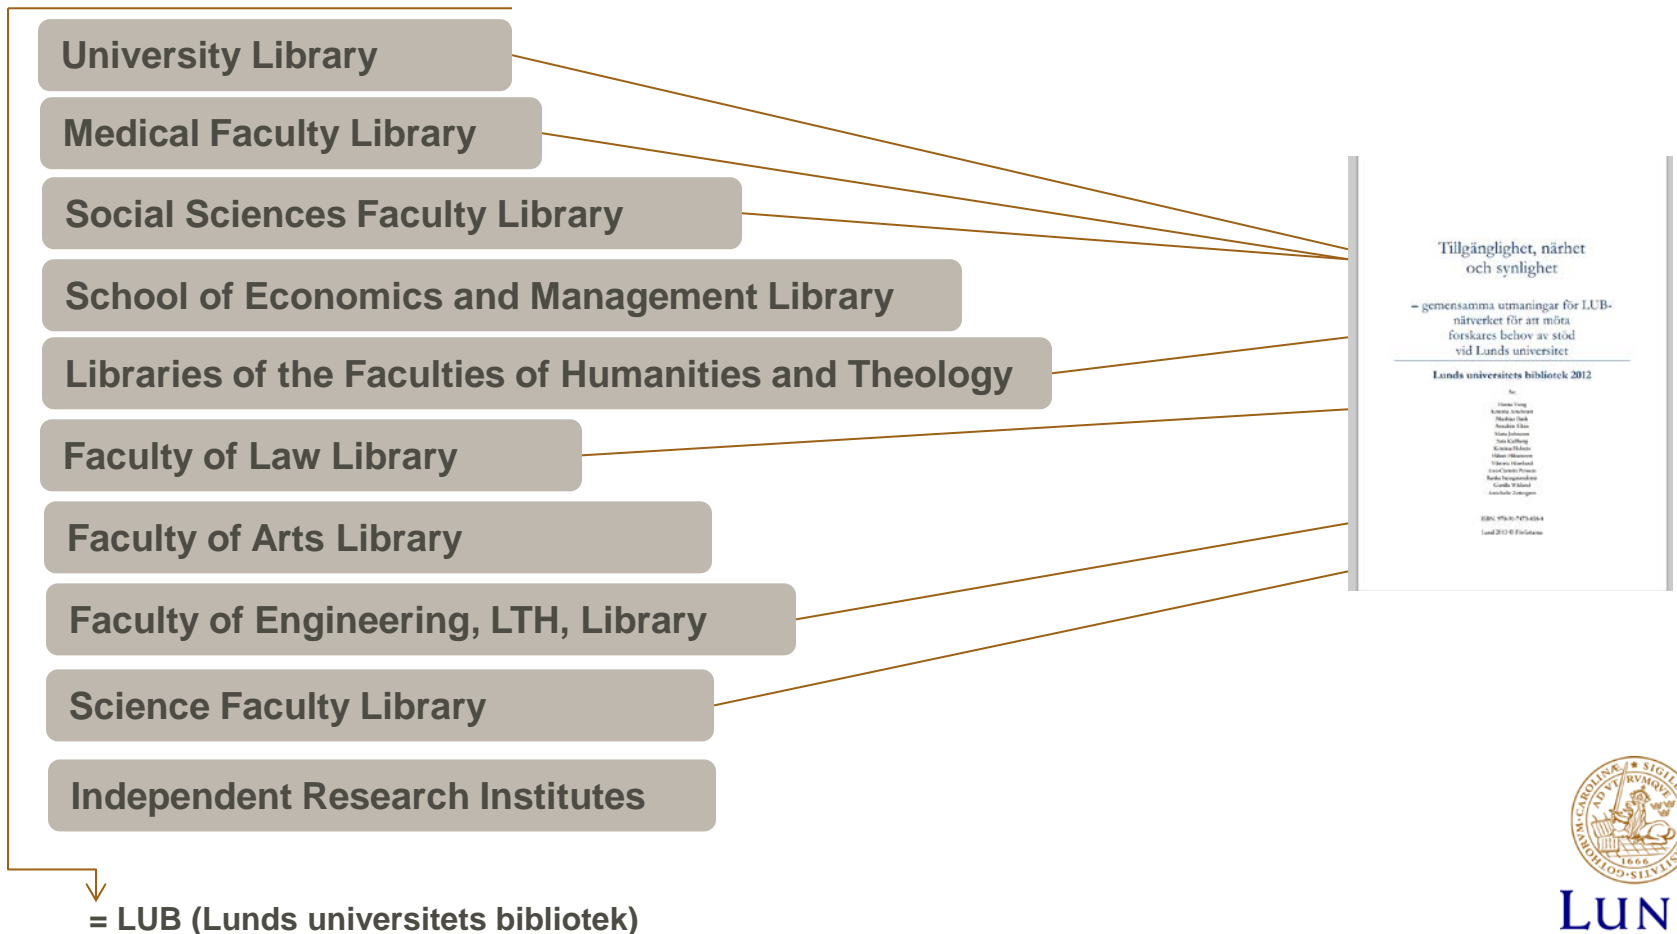

Fotograf: Mikale Risedal

Today:

Background: LUB

Background: project

Purpose of the project:

To identify areas where the present research support services at Lund University ought to be developed

By shifting perspectives

from the library's point of view

→ to the researchers' everyday lives & key obstacles in their research processes

We did not want to: evaluate library support services or resources

Background:

Results from the focus groups

The everyday lives of the researchers:

Lack of time, money and the possibility to focus on the research

A photograph showing a laboratory flask filled with a purple liquid, with white smoke or vapor rising from it. The flask is on a white surface. In the background, a purple cabbage is visible, and the setting appears to be a kitchen or a laboratory. The text is overlaid on the right side of the flask.

Gammelt vin
på nye flasker?
Eller måske nyt vin
på gamle flasker?

The Wine metaphor...

- The bottle
aka the organization of the research support services
- The label
aka the marketing of services and knowledge
- The wine
aka the actual research support services offered
- The product

Ex from LUB, “the Bottle”

- Organization of work:
 - concentrating the competence
 - spreading the competence
- Cooperation between units

Ex from LUB , “the Label”

- Marketing – towards the organization
- Marketing – towards the researchers

“The wine” – actual support services

- Seminars – for researchers / for editors of journals and series
- Seminars – a meeting point for researchers
- OA and self-archiving support
- Dedicated support to research groups/ researchers (“embedded”)
- Scientific monitoring and analysis
- Increased reference management programme support
- Digitizing on demand

Start a research project	Collect material	Process/analyze/write	Communicate results and make data accessible
---------------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------------	---

NEXT: The final product: opportunities for the future

- Proximity; partnership building
- Continuous conversations.
 - Focus groups interviews/discussions?
- Scaling up
- Period of trial-and-error
- Competencies
 - learning-by-doing
 - sharing, workshops
 - journal clubs, invite researchers
 - monitoring
 - inspiration

A woman in a lab coat is pouring liquid from a glass bottle into a small white container. In the foreground, a larger glass bottle is being held by a hand. The background shows a laboratory setting with various equipment and a window.
